

Student-Led Conferences 2020

January 7, 2020

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Conferences will be held all day on Thursday, January 16th, 2020 from 8:30am to 6:00pm. Time slots can be booked in 15-30 minute increments. There is flexibility with this format.

There will be no regularly scheduled classes on Friday, January 17th, 2020.

This year we are going to structure the student-led conferences similar to last year. The students will be leading the conference and will show you some samples of their work. There may be more than one family in each classroom at a time having their own respective conferences.

If additional time is needed to discuss concerns, please arrange this with the classroom teacher.
